Did you know...

Did you know that PUC Library has a just-for-fun reading collection?

Do you ever wish you could read something other than your textbook? Do you long to take a break from your studies and give your mind a rest? Are you looking for a bestseller to stimulate your imagination?

Welcome to the Readers Corner! It is located in the lobby by the sofas. Here we gather some of the latest bestsellers and give you a soft seat to explore ideas, lands and people you might never encounter in a class. If you would rather read them in the woods or at home, they may be checked out for three weeks.

In each issue of library@puc we will share a couple of the titles you will find. But don’t stop there! There are so many that we can’t list them all. Come browse the shelves, find the one that sparks your curiosity and begin a journey like no other. If you want more, check out my blog: “I Wish I Could Read This” @ http://luteslines.blogspot.com/

Joel Lutes, Editor

---

Especially for Business

Business Source Premier provides full text for more than 2,300 journals, including full text for more than 1,100 peer-reviewed titles. This search engine provides full text back to 1886, and searchable cited references back to 1998.

The library has several specialized search engines that offer access to over 30,000 journals. Each issue of library@puc highlights one for a unique segment of our students and faculty. Be sure to drop in or call 6639 and ask for those that are just for your department or major.